PRE-EVALUATION

An aerial photograph of a tropical island, likely in the Maldives, featuring a central lagoon with a small island in the middle. The water is clear and turquoise, and the island is lush with green vegetation. There are several buildings and structures on the island, including a prominent blue-roofed building. The background shows more islands and a clear blue sky.
